SWOC analysis :

a. Strength

- Deep love and inclination for Gujarati language and literature and voracious reading of it
- The lively atmosphere of the class due to the emotional attachment with the students hailing from the different strata of the society.
- The presentation of the content with the references in the classroom due to avid interest in the library.
- Can resolve any problems, arising in the classroom with fortitude.
- Can mitigate the students' educational as well as personal problems with proper counselling.
- Can anchor any kind of educational or social programmes successfully.
- Can organize student-oriented programmes
- Can assist in administrative works if necessary arises.
- Exposure in the field of excursions, trekking, and reading in taking the lectures for the students of other disciplines if need arises.

b. Weakness

- Inadequate knowledge of English language obstructs the path to read English literature in it's the original form.
- Less Exposure to technology.
- Insistence on perfection leads to procrastination.
- Inability to refuse demands increase workload.

c. Opportunities

- The consistent motivation from the management
- The co-operative nature of the principal
- The growing interest of the students in Gujarati language and literature due to the success ratio in various competitive examinations like G.P.S.C
- The positive attitude of the government to boost the regional language.

d. Challenges

- The biggest challenge is students' growing indifference for the books in an era of technology
- To deal with the students, hailing from rural backgrounds who take Gujarati as a second language.
- The completion of the syllabus in the semester system due to less number of teaching days.
- The structure of the examination fails to assess students' caliber in general.

23. Future plans

- To engage in research activities like publication of books and research papers.
- To engage in minor or major projects.
- To organize literary events.
- To organize a state/national level seminar in collaboration with English and Sanskrit department.
- To equip myself with technology and English, I shall endeavor in that direction.
